THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 7, 1858.

ERBATEM .- In the poetry on first page, 6th verse, the word daisies should read fairies.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Frank Short, boot and shoe maker, who has opened out on Second Street, in the room occupled by R. R. Welch, dec'd, as a watchmaking establishment.

PEASTERING .- By a reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that Mr. Edwin Cooper has located himself in Clearfield borough, and that he is prepared to do all kinds of fancy and common plastering.

The schute at Irwin's dam, which was damaged by the ice freshet, is in a fair way of being repaired. Mr. Irwin has had a number of hands actively at work on it for a week past, and expects to have it so far repaired in a few days that rafts can pass through safely, in the event of a rise in the river.

APPOINTED .- George Richards has been appointed jailor by Sheriff Reed. We have no doubt our friend Richards will make a prompt and efficient officer. He has located his tailor shop in the west room of the jail building, where he is ready to accommodate his customers with work in his line.

Those who were thrown out of offices and skops by the fire in our borough on the night of the 24th March, have again opened out. R. B. Taylor, eating-saloon, is in the basement of Merrell & Carter's building; Thos. J. Mc-Cullough, attorney at law, has his office one door west of Mossop's store; Frank Short has his boot and shoe shop in the room occupied lately by R. R. Welsh, dec'd; Joseph Goon, boot and shoe maker, has opened out at his residence on Market street; Geo. Richards, tailor, occupies a room in the jail; and Sam. Johnson, barber, has his shop on Water st.

"Yes, please your Majesty," said the Count, "if it one under it." A good many people undertake to build fortunes on this equitable principle.

Fact .- Do you not expend time enough each year, running after your neighbors' tools to pay for a complete outfit! Some men do, and exhaust the patience and respect of a good neighbor besides Arrived-a persevering pedestrian at Housthat "pure Democracy was more the voice of a demon than the voice of God," that "History has proven that pure Democracy is the most rapacious of tyrannies."

The Pennsylvania Legislature has resolved to adjourn sine die on the 23d of April.

DETTHE Pottsville Journal says: There are TREASURER'S SALE OF DUTES of miners, laborers and workmen in UNSEATED LANDS for scores of miners, laborers and workmen in this region, who during the past four mouths have not averaged in wages more than three cents a day! How do they like times under Buchanan ?

The Petersburg Express records the marriage, in Dinwiddie county, Va., on the 17th ult., of Mr. John W. Sturdivant, in the 22d year of his age, to the amiable and wellto-do Miss Martha Oliver, - aged 86 years. Maiden ladies who read this announcement may take courage and persevere.

"I think," said a farmer, "I should make good Congressman, for I use their language. I received two bills the other day, with a request for immediate payment; the one I ordered to be laid on the table, the other to be read that day six months."

THE UNITED STATES STEAMSHIP POWHATAN. This fine vessel, the flagship of the East India Squadron, Captain Pearson, arrived at St. Helena on the 27th January, in twenty-one days' passage from Madeira. The passage was a smooth one, and the officers and crew were in fine health. The vessel was to sail for the Cape of Good Hope in a few days. Longwood, the former residence of Napoleon, is now used as a stable, and the island has a dreary and uncultivated appearance. There are but few objects of interest on the island except the tomb of Napoleon.

Another Deputation of Indians,-A large deputation of the Pottawatomfe Indians, from the reservation in Kansas, arrived in St. Louis on the 14th inst., on their way to Washington, accompanied by Wm. E. Murphy, Esq., the efficient United States agent for that tribe. They present a fine appearance and are gentlemanly and civil in their demeanor. Their business at Washington is connected with the division of their lands, which comprise some of the finest portions of timber and prairie in

CORN PLANTING .- An Illinois farmer, who has been very successful in the cultivation of corn, gives the following as his mode of doing

First, by plowing the ground deep-say eight inches-either in the fall or just before planting. If in the fall, drag it well; or, if cloddy, I mark it out with a light marker, so as to prevent plowing deep, at a distance of 3 feet 6 inches apart, in rows each way, and put in from three to four kernals in each hill-invariably planting between the 1st and 10th of May. I prefer a double shovel plow, the first time over my corn. After that, I prefer the single shovel, I plow about four times, and have never failed of a good crop. Seed corn should always be saved before frost in the fall.

MARRIED : On the 31st March, by Rev. I. S. Demund, Rev. James J. Hamilton, of Blair county, and Miss Kate G. Hoffmeier, of Lancaster City. On the 1st April, by Rev. Thos. Barnhart, Mr. Amos B. Tate, of Lawrence township, and Miss JANE McDowell, of Pike township, Clearfield county.

On the 4th inst., by Rev. I. J. Stine, Mr. ABRAHAM WALKER and Miss MARGARET ELLEN CARLCART, all of Clearfield county.

On the 17th inst., in Pike tp., EDWARD, son of U. W. and S. C. M'Naul, aged four months and twenty eight days-We watched his breathing-He sleeps, His smile hath passed away,

As died a ripple on the sea.' We watched his breathing thro' the night-His breathing soft and low-As on his breast the wave of life Kept heaving to and tro.

So silently we seemed to speak, So slowly moved about, As we had lent him half our powers To eke his being out. Our very hopes belied our fears,

Our fears our hopes belied : We thought him dying when he slept, And sleeping when he died. For when the noon came, dim and sad,

And chill with early showers, His quiet eyelids closed-he had Another noon than ours. NEAR CURWENSVILLE, March 29th.

Dren-at his residence in Pike township, on the 3d April, John Jordan, Sr., aged 67 years, 4 months.

Lines written on my Father's Grave. Here lies, beneath this clayey mound,

The guardian of my youth, He who impressed my infant mind With sentiments of truth. His days on earth have numbered been, His earthly toils are o'er,

And sorrow's unrelenting sting Can pierce his heart no more. From scenes of darkness, pain and grief, His spirit took its flight, To regions of unchanging bliss

And never fading light. While in the world he shared its ills, And felt its bitter woes, Suffered alike from fickle friends And unavowed foes.

But here, secure from every harm, He enjoys a peaceful rest, Nor can the storms of life disturb The calmness of his breast.

That chiding voice which oft we heard, When leaving wisdom's way, Entreating me in softest tones Yet in her path to stay, Is hushed now in the sleep of death,

And never will greet my ear, Until astonished and amazed, The last fond trump I hear. Those active limbs, which quickly moved To do their makers will,

Now lie beneath this earthly pile, Insensible and still. Oh, valued spot, dear to my heart, The chamber of a friend, I too must find this narrow house

When earthly cares shall end. Then may my devious feet pursue The way which he has trod, That when with life I'm made to part, I may be with my god. S. & E.
